COACHING PHILOSOPHY

I have been coaching my childrens' teams since my oldest started playing sports back in 2016 (including soccer, softball, baseball, and basketball). My main priority with coaching is to help develop their skills and their IQ for the game, while also having fun and building hopefully lifelong friendships. The main focus has not always been on winning; however, I learned early on that when the kids have fun and know that their coach has their back - they play with all their hearts. I have fun with the girls but also expect their respect and the utmost level of sportsmanship. Win with grace, lose with grace. I am a big advocate of multi-sport athletes.
